WORSHIP NEWS

We celebrated Pentecost on May 23. Pentecost is an amazing holy day. It marked the end of a whole season of resurrection celebration and the beginning (or re-energizing) of Spirit-led, day-to-day, rubber-meets-the-road ministry. As we continue celebrating the gift of the Holy Spirit, we are reminded that the Spirit renews our hearts and moves us to faith, leads us into truth, and helps us to pray, stands by us in our need, and makes our obedience fresh and vibrant. God the Spirit lavishes gifts on the church in astonishing variety—prophecy, encouragement, healing, teaching, service, tongues, discernment—equipping each member to build up the body of Christ and to serve our neighbors. (Our World Belongs To God)

Power Point: We are in need of more volunteers! If you are interested or want to know more about how you can help, please talk to Carol Offringa after church. She will be at the Information Center. Thanks!

Worship Committee meets this Wednesday at 7 pm. We will be looking at Fall services and the Advent season. If you would like to join us to share ideas, please let Carol Offringa know.

Our Worship Services Next Sunday, June 20: Pastor Phil will lead both services. The morning message and scripture is Romans 8:12-17 “A New Dad”. It is Father’s Day.

Our evening service will focus on the greatness of God. It will be a little different format. Pastor Phil will give a meditation on “How Great Is Our God” (Psalm 145) followed by a Louis Giglio DVD.

“Louis Giglio was born in 1958 and grew up in a Christian home in Atlanta, Georgia. One morning at 2 AM during his freshman year at Georgia State University in 1977, he decided to follow Christ instead of the party life. That conscious decision led him to become one of the architects of the modern worship style geared towards young people with its emphasis on informal attire, expressive worship and low-key, visually driven sermons. Giglio’s ministry is based on Isaiah 26:8 – ‘Yes, LORD, walking in the way of your laws, we wait for you; your name and renown are the desire of our hearts.’”

Upcoming Worship Services:
